18 On May 25, 2006, the parties appeared before the Honorable Jeffrey S. White, United 19 States District Judge, for initial appearance of the defendant on the indictment in district court.
20 The defendant was personally present and in custody. Assistant Federal Public Defender 21 Geoffrey Hansen appeared on behalf of the defendant. The United States was represented by 22 Assistant United States Attorney Gregg W. Lowder.

23 The Court set the matter for July 27, 2006 at 2:30 p.m. for argument on the appeal of the 24 order detaining the defendant pending trial. The Court set a briefing schedule as follows: defense
25 opening brief to be filed June 8; government response to be filed July 6; defense reply to be filed 26 July 13.

27 The parties have now agreed to a disposition in this case. The disposition contemplates 28 that the defendant will plead guilty to the indictment and that a term of imprisonment will be

1 imposed. The parties are preparing the plea agreement and will be submitting it to the Court.

2 The issue of the defendant's detention is mooted by the agreement of the parties to 3 resolve this case. In light of the defendant's anticipated plea of guilty to the indictment on July 4 27, 2006, the parties join in a stipulation and request for a Court order to vacate the briefing
5 schedule. The parties further request the appearance on July 27, 2006 be vacated as a hearing for 6 arguments on the defendant's appeal of the detention order and set as a hearing for the 7 defendant's change of plea.
